A breathtaking backdrop

Rocky Mountain National Park, one of the most visited national parks in the United States, was established in 1915 after a massive national lobbying campaign by Enos Mills. The naturalist and lodge owner played a huge role in creating the park and subsequently the Estes Park, Colorado area. Visitors from all over the world come to marvel at the magnificent Rockies.

If you're lucky enough to spend some time in the Rocky Mountain region, The Ridgeline is equipped with all the services and amenities of a full-service hotel, and attaches directly to the Estes Park Conference Center for ease of access to both hotel guestrooms and meeting spaces.

The unique property, nestled at the base of Rocky Mountain National Park and just a few minutes from downtown Estes Park, blends a casual style with modern amenities and design in a laidback mountain atmosphere.

Few things are more inspiring than being surrounded by the beauty of the mountains. The Ridgeline offers a peaceful refuge amid stunning natural beauty, where creative ideas thrive.

Many distinctive experiences both on the property and in the national park are available. Team-building activities such as golf tournaments, mountain survival challenges and more can take your group experience to the next level.

With features like numerous meeting venues, flexible meeting facilities and state-of-the-art audio/visual equipment, The Ridgeline Hotel Estes Park® is the perfect home base for your group.

We've thought about every aspect of 2021 group events, so you don't have to. As such, Delaware North's Rest Assured: Commitment to Care is a comprehensive program to help keep guests and employees safe and slow the spread of COVID-19.

We've reengineered our operating procedures to minimize contact risk and bolstered hygiene protocols to exceed best practice guidelines of the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). Our facilities undergo rigorous, ongoing deep cleaning and disinfection.

As we all navigate the pandemic, we recognize that making travel decisions may leave us feeling somewhat uneasy. We want our guests to "Rest Assured" that we have them covered. Our relaxed cancellation policy provides guests with the confidence of flexibility. Under our policy, reservations will be allowed to be changed or canceled at no charge up to 48 hours before the scheduled arrival date. Changes to the reservation will be subject to availability and any rate differences.

At The Ridgeline Hotel Estes Park® and each of our properties, count on group events engineered with an abundance of caution.
